Riding is not only a way of pursuing a green and healthy lifestyle, but also a way for us to exercise and hone our minds. Every sweaty uphill, every refreshing sprint, every persistence when we are about to give up, and every joy of breaking through the limits will make our hearts stronger.

*There were too many childhood laughs on the swing.
I remembered a late autumn many years ago.
On the swing under the big tree,
one boy was swinging happily on the swing.
It was the most beautiful scenery in childhood.
It's the childlikeness that can't be erased from memory.*

The future is a tortuous and gravel road. When obstacles and difficulties are in front of us, don't be sad. We should respond with a positive and correct attitude, analyze the reasons, and find ways to solve the problem. Success will naturally follow.

The children had bare feet.

It was Johnson who was stepping on the water in front of the water attractions, and he also used his hands to catch the water droplets from the air.

Jim and Robin, who followed his step on the rain creek on the ground and swayed their arms rhythmically.

They also raised their heads from time to time, letting the water droplets wash their heads and cover their faces.
